Legislative Priority

South King County is facing a growing affordable housing crisis. In order to address this crisis, we need to fund all aspects of affordable housing, including:

- Homeownership for moderate income households and below
- Preservation of naturally occurring affordable housing (NOAH)
- Land acquisition to secure permanent affordability
- Permanent supportive housing (PSH)
- Infrastructure around affordable housing developments
- Workforce housing

Our Communities

- Residents in South King County face rising housing costs and decreasing affordable supply in ways not found elsewhere in King County.¹
- SKHHP member cities are under intense pressure to support their residents' ability to remain in the community.
- 52% of South King County residents identify as persons of color.²
- SKHHP member cities' average household income is 36% lower than King County's ($97,975 vs $154,122).³
- Life expectancy among South King County residents declined between 2011 and 2021.⁴
- In King County, infant mortality is highest in South King County, where babies are twice as likely to die before their first birthday than babies born in East King County.⁵

Housing Capital Fund

SKHHP member cities pool funds to support the production and preservation of affordable housing in South King County through the SKHHP Housing Capital Fund. Funding supports the needs of low-income households earning up to 60% of area median income. Funding priorities include projects that advance racial equity, geographic equity, and economic opportunity. To date, 109 units of affordable housing in South King County have been supported by SKHHP and over $7 million has been pooled.

Executive Board

SKHHP is governed by a joint board, referred to as the Executive Board, created by an Interlocal Agreement. Each SKHHP partner jurisdiction appoints an elected official or administrator to serve as their representative to guide the work of SKHHP staff. The Executive Board sets SKHHP's workplan and budget and makes final recommendations on Housing Capital Fund projects.

Community Advisory Board

An advisory board made up of members of the community and local housing organizations provides guidance to the Executive Board and informs the selection of Housing Capital Fund projects. The Advisory Board ensures representation of South King County's diverse communities within SKHHP's work.

Who We Are

Formed in 2019 by an Interlocal Agreement, we are a collaboration between 10 South King County cities and King County united under the common goal to ensure the availability of housing for all income levels of residents in South King County. We achieve this through a focus on the production and preservation of affordable housing, partnership with public and private organizations, pooling and sharing resources, and advancing housing policies.

Purpose

Create a coordinated, comprehensive, and equitable approach to increasing housing stability, reducing homelessness, and producing and preserving quality affordable housing in South King County.
